

A PROBLEM OF INTERACTING OBSTACLES

Luis Caffarelli

University of Texas, USA

Originally considered by Chipot and Vergara-Caffarelli this family of problems concerns “deformable” functions, pressing against each other like an elastic body against a membrane or the income and cost of an asset We will discuss the existence and geometry of solutions