

Lower bounds in some problems of real Schubert calculus

Alexandre Eremenko, Andrei Gabrielov

Department of Mathematics, Purdue University
150 N. University St., West Lafayette, IN 47907-2067, USA

We single out some problems of Schubert calculus of subspaces of codimension 2 that have the property that all their solutions are real whenever the data are real. For other similar problems we prove non-trivial lower bounds for the number of real solutions. Our arguments explore the connection between subspaces of codimension 2 and rational functions of one variable.